

Residential new construction incentives

FOR HOMES AFFECTED BY THE 2014 WILDFIRES

We're committed to putting the needs of our customers first. It's a fundamental part of our business philosophy. In times of need, we're here to help. For people who lost their homes in the Southern California fires last year we have special incentives. Immediately following the fires, we increased our residential new construction incentives by 100% for families who rebuild their homes to exceed standard building code levels of energy efficiency. In an effort to assist with the ongoing rebuilding efforts, we're currently offering these special incentives.

Did you know?

Fire season is year-round in Southern California. This rang true last year with the May wildfires. For families who are rebuilding their homes, we have special incentives for efficiency improvements that exceed standard building code.

Energy-efficiency incentives for the California Advanced Home Program (CAHP)*

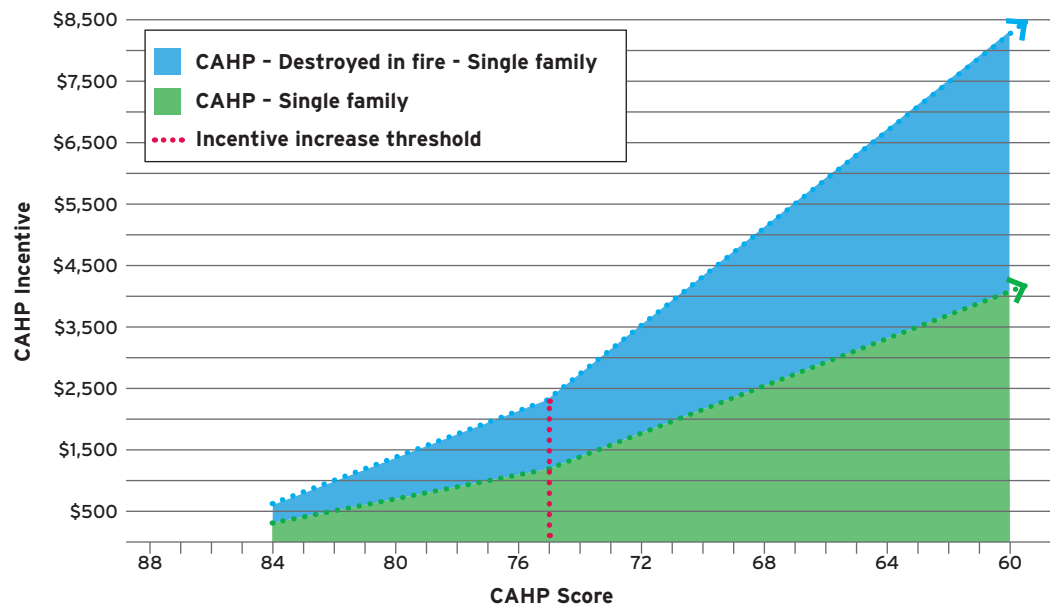

CAHP - Single family

- $300 for program entry CAHP Score of 84
- $100 for each point to 75
- $200 for each point thereafter

CAHP - Destroyed in fire - Single family

- $600 for program entry CAHP Score of 84
- $200 for each point to 75
- $400 for each point thereafter

2014 wildfire incentive structure (single family)

When you're ready to rebuild, please check with us to learn about available assistance and energy- and money-saving offers. To find out how you can take advantage of rebuilding incentives call us at 858-636-5730.

*For Advanced Home Program details, visit sdge.com/construction.

This program is funded by California utility customers and administrated by San Diego Gas & Electric® under the auspices of the California Public Utilities Commission. This program may be modified or terminated without prior notice and is provided to qualified customers on a first-come, first-served basis until program funds are no longer available. Eligibility requirements apply. San Diego Gas & Electric is not responsible for any goods or services selected by the customer.